A CONFESSION EXPECTED.

The contract for the scaffold on which Walter Johnson is to be executed in the jail-yard of this city on the 22d of this month has been awarded,
and the rope has been ordered from the North.
It is thought that Johnson will make a full confession of his crime on or before the day of his execution. He has, in fact, made a confession to several parties, which was largely instrumental in securing his conviction, though he boldly dehield doing so on his trial.

The truck business around Petersburg is rapidgrowing each year: The shipments of fruits

A number of the cars of the front train were devalled and broken, but nobedy is reported hurt. The wrecking-car was sent to the scene and the track was cleared during the day.

THE FLORIDA DEAD-LOCK. An Interesting Review of the Situation by

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The war between the Call-its and anti-Call-its is wagting fiercely. There have been several rencontres on the strength of it, but luckly no one has been seriously damaged. The results have not in the least been detrimental to either side. It seems strange to a lookeron that there should be so much animesity shown among Democrats on this question as to who should be the next senator from Florida. A Democrat it must be and will be. At this juncture nothing less than a bare and insufficient minority holds the reins. The Call-lis hold their own, and it seems likely that they will stay as they are until the adjournment of the Legislature without a nomination by the caucus. It will then devolve upon the Governor of the State to make the appointment. There are unmerous aspirants for the office. Among the most prominent are W. D. Bloxham, James P. Tallaferro, John E. Hartridge, and Mr. Hammend.

Call has still a majority of the caucus, and it is ical. Call has still a majority of the caucus, and it is resumed by his friends that he will eventually

The Hot and Healing Springs are being greatly improved and will be opened early in May, and will be run under the direction of the Southern Improvement Company. Extensive improvements in bathing catablishments and hotels will be made during the next year or two. Plans are being prepared for a villa for Mr. M. E. Ingalls, precident of the Chesapeake and Ohlo Rallway Company, which will be constructed during the season at the Warm Springs.

Engineers and landscape gardeners are now engaged in laying out the properties at the Hot and Warm Springs, and a number of handsome lots and villa sites will be offered for sale in the near future to acceptable parties who desire to build.

The waters are superior to any known waters, and by the extension of the railroad the great population of the eastern cities will have easy and comfortable access to this, the loveliest valley in the world—Richmond, Washington, Raitmore, and New York and the Ohio Valley all being within a days' ride of it. This proximity, together with the delightful climate, will undoubtedly create a tremendous development in this valley, which is beautiful to look upon and occupies a position 2,500 feet above the sca.
